

John Brownlee-Baker, BBA (SFU), MBA (A.P.I.U.)

John Brownlee-Baker is a qualified Industrial Engineer with an I.E. Diploma from Coventry Technical College in the U.K. After immigrating to Canada in 1979, he received his BBA from Simon Fraser University and his MBA in International Management from Asia-Pacific International University in New Zealand.

Prof. Brownlee-Baker has lived and worked extensively in the global environment including Kenya, South Yemen, Lebanon, Germany, People's Republic of China, Singapore, Hong Kong and Japan. Besides teaching in the Capilano School of Business, he is also the Liaison Professor to Kushiro University in Japan, where he has been the visiting professor in 1996, 2004 and 2006. He has also represented Capilano University on numerous occasions including joint seminars, graduations and workshops. His paper "Asia in the 21st Century – A Canadian Perspective" was published in Japan in 1998. Prof. Brownlee-Baker's research interests are Asian current affairs, history and culture, leadership, motivation, international business ethics and management, and corporate social responsibility. He led the inaugural China Field School in 2008