
The Margeaux Trailblazer Award (#0823)

Dr. Kris Bulcroft, President of Capilano University and her husband, Dr. Rick Bulcroft, Associate Professor at Western Washington University, established this award to support students, male or female, redefining stereotypically gender-specific education. Kris is a recipient of several Fulbright Awards for research and teaching in Canada and Slovakia. Rick was a Senior Fulbright Scholar at the University of Dar es Salaam in Tanzania. The Fulbright programs were established to increase mutual understanding between the people of the United States and other countries through the exchange of persons, knowledge, and skills. The two have also co-authored several books together, one of them based on an interdisciplinary research project looking at North American honeymoon rituals as they relate to changing cultural conceptions of marriage and family life. Kris and Rick have established this award to encourage students wishing to pursue a nontraditional career path and have done so in their honour of their beloved companion Margeaux.
