

To Our Community Members,

We are Passion Piece: a small group of individuals combining our varied skills and passions to create something big!

The evening of October 6th will be our first annual benefit concert, with all the funds raised being donated directly to Raincity Housing; a downtown eastside shelter organization. The event is from 7pm-2am at the Anza Club in Vancouver, 150 people will be attending the evening of artistic performances.

The vision of this event is to bring together the communities of Vancouver by encouraging others to explore how their own skills or passions can be used for the greater good.

To reach our goal of $5000 for Raincity, we are turning to our community for support. Instead of asking for monetary donations, we are asking for your professional contribution.

To acknowledge your support we will represent your organization on the night of the event with your own puzzle piece on our sponsor banner as well as on our facebook page.

This is the template:

Your time and passion is much appreciated by our group,
Please contact us at any time,
